

Restaurant Profiles

Formal:

Bacchanalia – Continually the favorite for client lunches in the building, phenomenal food with exceptional service, expensive but worth it – www.starprovisions.com - Located off of Howell Mill – reservations highly recommended

South City Kitchen – great place for lunch with or without clients, always wonderful food and service, reservations recommended – www.southcitykitchen.com – Located on Crescent

Tamarind – exceptional Thai restaurant, usually voted best in Atlanta – reservations recommended – Located on 14th Street

Nan – owned by same people that run Tamarind, again, exceptional Thai cuisine, a little more expensive than Tamarind – reservations recommended – Located on corner of Spring and 17th Street

Park 75 – Inside the Four Seasons, formal but wonderful food with great service – www.fourseasons.com – Located on 14th Street, reservations recommended

Mid City Cuisine – great food with or without clients, fun atmosphere with great food, not as formal as some, Located on corner of Spring and Peachtree in Midtown

Veni Vidi Vici – Always good Italian food, can't go wrong taking clients here www.buckheadrestaurants.com – Located on 14th Street

Cherry – fun atmosphere, a little of everything, good food, can go here with or without clients, a little overpriced but still good food, Located on www.aboutcherry.com – Located on West Peachtree Street

Casual:

Carolyn's – very casual and great food, always reliable, sit inside or outside, located a block from building on West Peachtree

Vickery's – good place for lunch, more casual, sit inside or outside, www.vickerys.com Located on Crescent

Front Page News – great place for lunch or happy hour, casual, the best is sitting outside next to fountain, in the winter the outside is heated, fun atmosphere, www.fpnnews.com – Located next to Vickery's on Crescent

Fuego - café and tapas bar, very casual but great place for great tapas and fun atmosphere, good place for happy hour www.fuegocafe.com – Located on Crescent (within walking distance)

Pasta da Pulcinella – great pasta dishes and great food, fun atmosphere for lunch or happy hour, inside a cute, little house – Located on 12th Street

Twisted Taco – again, very casual, southwestern, fun atmosphere, www.twistedtaco.com, - Located off of 12th Street

My Friend's Place – Small eat-in, or take-out. Sandwiches, salads, both hot & cold selections. Reasonably priced. Located at Crescent & 14th Streets (within walking distance)

The Rising Roll – Located in lobby of Atlantic Center Plaza Bldg. (across the street). Great food, quick. Freshly made sandwiches, salads & soups.

Subway Sandwich Shop – Corner of Spring & 14th Street. (within walking distance)

Shout – this is new, coming fall of 2004, Located at Colony Square where Country Place used to be, Shout's menu will consist of tapas influenced from the Mediterranean, South America and the far east. There will be a sushi bar and wood burning pizza oven and a roof top lounge. – www.heretoseverestaurants.com

Taqueria del Sol – very casual but very good, cheap Mexican food – www.taqueriadelsol.com - Located off of Howell Mill, only a 5 minute drive

Figo Del Osteria – has received great reviews, supposed to be a great, solid place for lunch Located off of Howell Mill next to Taqueria del Sol – www.figopasta.com

Thai Chili – Located at Colony Square, Thai cuisine