

Jeff Stone

Partner, The Altera Law Group

952.253.4130
jstone@alteralaw.com

Jeff Stone is a registered patent attorney with a technical industrial background. His technical experience includes automated chemistry analysis, analytical chemistry, biotechnology, inorganic chemistry and antibody science - including monoclonal and polyclonal assays, fluid sampling and materials science.

Jeff's intellectual property practice includes:

- Infringement analysis and opinions of patents, trademarks and copyrights
- Patent drafting and prosecution
- Due diligence
- Patent litigation strategy and support
- Preparation of commercial agreements including license agreements and employee non-disclosure/non-compete agreements
- Trademark and copyright protection in the United States and abroad

Jeff has prosecuted patent applications in a wide range of fields, including:

- In-Vitro diagnostics
- Atherectomy devices
- Cardiovascular pacing devices
- Liquid analyte sampling

Practices

- Intellectual Property

Education

- J.D., cum laude, William Mitchell College of Law
- M.S., University of Minnesota
- B.S., University of North Dakota

Bar & Court Admissions

- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office
- Minnesota
- U.S. District Court, Minnesota
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Federal Circuit

Memberships

- Minnesota State Bar Association
- American Intellectual Property Law Association
- Minnesota Intellectual Property Law Association

- Biosensors
- Macromolecular biopolymer detection
- Nanotechnology
- Cryogenic pumps
- Semiconductor structures
- Optics
- Mechanical devices
- Software and Business methods

Powell Goldstein has formed a strategic alliance with the Altera Law Group to enhance our abilities to serve our clients' specialized intellectual property needs. Our alliance helps clients maximize the value of their intellectual property resources, whether patent, trademark, trade-secret, copyright or related areas of law, by combining them into an effective strategy. To learn more about how our strategic alliance with Altera can help you we invite you to visit Altera's web site: <http://www.alteralaw.com/>.