Illya Antonenko focuses his practice in international anti-corruption and transactional matters. Specifically, Mr. Antonenko advises multinational companies with respect to compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and international requirements such as the OECD anti-corruption convention. This work involves assisting clients with due diligence reviews of third parties, conducting internal investigations, and implementing compliance policies, procedures, and training.

In addition to FCPA work, Mr. Antonenko assists U.S. and foreign companies with overseas transactions and other international matters. For example, Mr. Antonenko oversaw due diligence reviews of acquisition targets in Ukraine and the Republic of Georgia, negotiated and drafted agreements for acquisition of telecommunications assets in the former Soviet Union, and advised on contracts with overseas suppliers and sales representatives. As part of a small team, Mr. Antonenko prepared and executed an innovative, multifaceted strategy on behalf of U.S. investors in a Russian company to fend off attacks from a notorious Russian corporate raider and to negotiate an exit strategy.

In the past, Mr. Antonenko assisted governments of
