Carl A. Gebo is a member of the Firm's Homeland Security and Government Contracts Group. His primary area of concentration is litigation related to Homeland Security and public contracts. He also serves as Regional Coordinating Counsel as part of our Firm's National Discovery Counsel Team. For clients doing business with municipal, state and federal entities, he has provided advice and assistance on legislation, regulations and development in the federal and state acquisition, including the recent Department of Homeland Security.

He has also represented clients with claims based on the Davis-Bacon Act, constructive changes, defective specifications and violation of software license agreements in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals and the United States Court of Federal Claims. He also has substantial experience in negotiating construction-related agreements and construction claims. He has represented owners and contractors and subcontractors on numerous types of construction projects, including a paper pulp processing facility, electronic outdoor advertising structures, health care facilities, schools, hotels, commercial office buildings and residential homes. In these representations, he has negotiated AIA, AGC, EJCDC and DBIA agreements and
